To Those Who Are Seeking Acreage at or Near The Country Club

I wish to advise that I have four and one-half acres left of the Harvey W. Harmer tract at Spring Hill, and in addition to this I have 23 acres fine orchard and good seven room house right across the river from Barnes stop of which you can buy from one acre to the whole tract. This is the original Allen Stewart Farm now owned by Mr. P. P. Steptoe. It is exclusive, private and in as fine a neighborhood as there is in Harrison County. It wont last long and if you are interested you had better buy now for within a few weeks the prices are going to be as high as they now are at the Country Club. I have the exclusive sale of this tract and can offer you perfect protection. This property gradually slopes down to the river where you have as great opportunity for a motor boat as you will find on any of the Celebrated Lakes of Minnesota. The river is navigable for several miles at this point.
